This Side Of The Sun

By Phat

Memo from Mrs. G.: "In re last Friday's column—you indicated, by a large red dot on the third page of the copy paper you gave me, where I was to stop so that what I had written would make just a column and not 'jump' to another page. . . . You added—rather needlessly—I thought—'That red dot is a stop signal, don't be a woman driver and go through it.' . . . That just proves my contention. . . . I stopped a half line short of the red signal and discovered when reading The Sun I had written four inches too much. . . . So, if women go through stop signals it's because men put them in the wrong place."

THE WEATHER was, and is, still the main subject of contributions and communications to the column this week. . . . One card, which breaks the rule about unsigned items and lands in here instead of the waste basket, read: "On top of your paper, on the left, where you set forth the temperatures, you run a series of * * * pointing to a note * thermometer out of order. . . . Want to correct that. . . . It wasn't the thermometer that was out of order. . . . It was the weather." Jingles continued to jangle, too, with one contributor sending in one for each month up to and well into the fall. . . . For the immediate past month:

Don't Go 'Way
As Early as May.
And a realistic one about the current month:
You'll Like June
Except Around Noon

THAT LAST ONE, about June, has both rhyme and reason. . . . So has the one about October which carries both truth and poetry, too:

Villagers cheer—
October's Here.
If Frances Schweighardt, Village school teacher, who sent in the first stick-around slogans had known what she was starting, maybe she wouldn't have.

AM COMPILING a new file on "What to Do and What to Eat" during the summer here. . . . The idea back of it is to answer that question: How to keep cool on the desert in July and August. A Doctor friend says: "Salt tablets and B-1 daily and lots of cool water. . . . He said he meant cool, not ice water. . . . 'Drink hot drinks—soft and eat hot food,' said another. . . . 'Take luke-warm showers, not cold ones,' said a third. . . . 'Take it easy, don't knock yourself out working too hard,' came in, too. . . . I like that one. . . . One perspiring citizen, juggling a suitcase had the simple answer: 'How to keep cool in Palm Springs in summer? That's easy—Go to the beach like I'm doing.'"

FATHER'S DAY passed quietly here. . . . One local dad, not knowing about the holiday the day before, remarked: "That was nice of the Villagers yesterday—to put out their flags in honor of the Fathers." . . . Eddie Berman became a father on May 21 but he waited until Father's Day to pass out the cigars. . . . A Chicago hospital started something new on Father's Day, something which should be adopted the length and breadth of the land. . . . The new fathers were presented with cigars instead of having to present them. . . . Not only that, the beneficiary of another income tax deduction also received a little cake, iced with the greeting: "Happy Father's Day," and also candy. . . . They even refrained from charging him for the linoleum he had worn out while waiting.

HARRY OLIVER, of 1000 Palms, was in last week with his usual contributions. . . . He's getting ready to issue the Spring, 1948, edition of his Desert Rat Scrapbook. . . . He's always two or three seasons ahead with his paper which he claims is the only 5-page newspaper in the world and also the only one you can read in the wind. . . . They have to have a paper which can be read in the wind out there. . . . Publication date of the Scrapbook varies, dependant on many things. . . . This time, Oliver said, the next edition will be out as soon as Roy Mills sells the 100 he had left of the Winter, 1947, edition. Advance proof shows the following item: "Phat Graettinger, editor of the swank Palm Springs press, The Desert Sun, recently referred to our road runners as street walkers." . . . I didn't say it but if I did, it must have been on a day when it was too hot to run.

HOW'S your magnetism today? Every minute of every human beings life, according to an eastern scientist, 150,000 radioactive carbon atoms go boom in his body. . . . This process provides 21 billion electron volts which are what makes us tick. . . . So if you don't feel like cleaning up the yard, aren't getting the proper voltage. . . . Well, if this piece runs over the bottom of the page, I'll surely hear from Mrs. G. . . . And remember, if you have anything undone which you planned to do this Spring—you have only three days. . . . Summer starts Saturday.

Business Men Check Loot of Shoplifting Trio

Village merchants are parading to the police station these days to retrieve approximately $600 in merchandise shoplifted from their places of business by three confessed women shoplifters, Mexican nationals.

Although Madeline Lopez, 37, Marilla Mendoza, 31, and Judith Gonzales, 27, couldn't speak a word of English and were naive in their actions while in custody of the police, the trio taught local merchants a few lessons in the fine art of "lifting" merchandise off of counters and clothes racks and walking out of these shops without taking the trouble of paying for the dresses, silverware, radios, expensive luggage, and sundry other items.

CONSIDERING the amount of loot the three Mexican women gathered together from the various stores they visited, police were amazed that no one saw them actually take any of the merchandise from their places of business. Later they were astonished to see various items which they had not even missed from their establishments.

Of the eight or nine merchants that were victimized by the "shop-lifting" Mexican women, only Bill Marvin of the Palm Springs Sports Store and a clerk of the Palm Springs Department Store had reported that merchandise was missing from their establishments.

IN COMPANY with the three Mexican women when arrested were two Mexican men, citizens of Mexico, who claimed they met their feminine companions in Los Angeles and were en route back to their country when they stopped in Palm Springs.

The quintet were all brought before Judge Eugene E. Theriault on charge of petty theft last week at which time the three women pleaded guilty and were fined $150 each and the charges against their companions dismissed for lack of evidence. All were turned over to the border patrol officers for investigation and deportation to their native land.

Small Building Lost in Flames

Firemen answered two alarms on Saturday. The first one at 9:30 a.m., was at the Crossley Trailer Court where a short in the electrical wiring caused flames to partially destroy a single story structure owned by Lawrence Crossley. Damages were estimated at approximately $600. The building had been used as a warehouse.

The second alarm at 6:38 p.m., brought firemen and equipment to the Rancho Trailer Park but by the time the fire fighters arrived a wood pile which had been blazing out of control had been extinguished.

Shrine Club To Be Organized in Banning

Palm Springs Shriners are invited to attend a meeting Friday, June 20, at 7:30 p. m., at San Geronimo Inn in Banning at which time a Shrine Club will be organized. Al Malaikah Shrine of Los Angeles has given permission for formation of the club.

Going Up New Thermometer Points to New Season

The recalcitrant thermometer which keeps tab on how hot and how cold—if any—it gets in Palm Springs has been discarded. Last week it folded up and refused to give out with the daily maximum so it was put into a waste disposal can and carted to the city dump where, if it would, it could really record something hot.

In its place a new one was installed and the very first thing it ran up a 102, followed with a 110 on Sunday and showed 113 yesterday. The minimum stuck around in the 60s.

The three-figure readings were taken as advance notice of what's due this coming Saturday. On that day Spring will fade out of the picture and summer arrives. It will also be the longest day of the year with plenty of what Palm Springs is famous for—the sun.

Sarthou Files Appeal Notice

Alexander Emil Sarthou, who told Deputy District Attorney Hal Gustafson, that he intends to make a million dollars in Palm Springs, and that five days in the county jail would needlessly delay his guest of that much "pocket change," has appealed the verdict of the jury that found him guilty of disturbing the peace here.

Robert Daugherty, defense attorney, who lost his battle for a new trial and arrest of judgment in Judge Eugene E. Theriault's court Friday, filed briefs and affidavits with the district attorney Saturday, setting forth that his client had not received a fair trial in Palm Springs and that the jury men were prejudiced.

THE SENTENCE meted out to Sarthou following a stiff reprimand, by Judge Theriault, was 30 days in the county jail, with 25 days suspended provided that a fine of $200 be paid. Further, the Judge placed Sarthou on "probation" in that he shall not sing or use obscene language in the pre-dawn hours to the discomfort of his sleeping neighbors.

FWI Added to Alphabetical Soup

Costa Mesa Man Changes Plea to Guilty in First Flying While Intoxicated Case

In this age of alphabetism, practically every reader knows by now that DWI means Driving While Intoxicated. Now they are going to have to learn to recognize a new one—FWI.

Palm Springs' first arrest for FWI—and, incidentally, the county's first, too—was on the superior court docket at Riverside last week. It involved Jacob Warren Smouse of Costa Mesa. He pleaded guilty and asked probation.

CUTTING CAPERS over the local airport and throwing a near panic into the neighborhood, the Costa Mesa man was arrested by local police when he landed his plane on the evening of March 2. The law had been summoned by Mary Nelson, operator of the airport, who said flying tactics employed by Smouse were im-

Empty Saddles Start Search For 3 Youths

Return of a riderless horse and pack animal to the stables here caused Culver Nichols, city councilman, and his wife to launch an air and ground search for their son, Prescott (Nicky) Culver, who, in company with John Jr., and Billy Chaffey, had started a six-day horseback ride to Carlsbad and Encinitas on the coast as they had done last year. The father knew that the boys intended to ride up Palm Canyon Sunday and camp the first night at the Bunker ranch and when the horses returned at 5 p. m., the frantic parents immediately notified the police department.

AN AERIAL SEARCH was started by Councilman Nichols who chartered a plane to the local field and with Policeman Jim Maynard, an expert on the local mountain terrain, flew over the route the boys had proposed to take through Palm Canyon. They were unable to sight the boys from the air.

Later, Police Sergeant Orest Johnson, saw John Chaffey Jr., riding his horse through the gate at Palm Canyon and learned that the two horses fled from pasture at Paradise Flats where the riders had stopped to rest. Young Chaffey told the police sergeant that he was riding back to the Village to retrieve the run-away mounts and that his brother and Nicky were camped at Paradise Flats for the night.

Monday young Chaffey and Jim Maynard made the trip to Paradise Flats on horseback, each leading a mount. Mrs. Culver Nichols reported that three horses got away from the boys and at a late hour Monday, the third horse had not been found.

Chamber Fire

The Chamber of Commerce almost lost its happy home yesterday afternoon.

An overworked electric motor in the air cooling system caught fire and if it hadn't been for the speed and efficiency of the local fire boys, Harry Harper would today be out looking for another place to labor in.

Supervisory Race Still an Open One

Appointment Under Study By Governor

Fourth District
Member May Be Named by June 25

The vacancy created by the resignation of Robert Dillon as county supervisor may be filled before June 25, it was reliably reported yesterday.

This fact loomed as a possibility because Governor Earl Warren is expected to leave on a short vacation soon after the adjournment of legislature and senate at the end of this week as will Senator Nelson Dilworth and Assemblyman Phil Boyd, upon whom the governor leans for advice in county appointments and also because of the urgency of having a representative on the board of supervisors from this, the fourth district, in making of the 1947-48 county budget. Earlier it had been reported the appointment would be held up until July 1. (See Page 6, column 3.)

IT IS KNOWN that the governor and the representatives from this district to the state's capitol do not wish to see the appointment of a supervisor "hanging fire" during many more days of the summer months or to plague them while on vacation.

Standing foremost as a choice for the vacancy, it was reported, is William Kerstner, banker and citrus grower of Coachella Valley, in whose favor Harry Harper, manager of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce, withdrew from the race recently. Another candidate for whom friends are making a determined fight is Wallace Rouse, justice of the peace of Indio City.

HARPER LONG AGO announced that if a candidate for the position of supervisor could be found in or around Indio City, suitable in qualifications to the Governor, he would ask his friends to withdraw his name from the race. When he announced his withdrawal June 10, it was with the tacit understanding that advocates for his appointment to the vacancy would swing See RACE OPEN, Page 10

Suspect, Wanted Here, in Jail in San Jose, Report

Wanted in Palm Springs on a morals offense involving an 8-year-old child, a suspect was in jail in San Jose today on a morals charge there.

He gave his name there as Lonnie Frank Conley and the grandsons, mother of the child and three workers on the place where the offense took place January 31, have identified photographs of him, sent here by San Jose police, as that of a man using the name of Charles Franklyn while here.

At that time the grandfather of the child severely punished Franklyn who fled before the complaint against him was signed.

Villager Wins Caltech Degree

Among those receiving degrees at the California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, at ceremonies last Friday was Robert C. Belyea, son of Mrs. T. M. C. Belyea of the Village.

He received a Bachelor of Science degree in engineering. Enlisting in the navy during the war, he was assigned to Caltech where he was among the top students in his classes.

Flood Budget To Be Set Here

Commissioner of Zone 6 of the county flood control district which includes the Palm Springs area, will meet Tuesday, June 24, at 3 p. m. at the Chamber of Commerce to hold a hearing on the budget for the coming year, it was announced today by W. R. Hillery, secretary of the commission.

Other members of the commission are Culver Nichols, chairman and Herbert Samson.

No Politics—Just Ranching and Praise for Life on the Desert

Eschewing politics and talking, instead, about the desert, its climate and how much he likes it, Bill Reichel, prominent figure in state and national republican circles, was a flying visitor to Palm Springs and Rancho Mirage last week.

Reichel, a resident of Oakland, friend of Gov. Earl Warren, campaign chief for Senator William Knowland, brought with him another Oakland resident, Ben Miller, a meat packer of the bay area and another desert enthusiast.

THE DESERT, particularly Palm Springs and Rancho Mirage, gained another booster in Miller. He bought a ranch in the Rancho Mirage district, right next to Reichel's. The two are also neighbors in the Piedmont section of Oakland.

Miller, who recently bought the famous McIntyre ranch at Rancho Mirage, is planning extensive improvements there. Among other things, he plans to renovate the old adobe house on the property and convert it into a winter residence.

THE OAKLANDERS made a quick trip here, coming down via air, remaining two nights and a day, and flying back.

Reichel played a leading part in the successful campaign which sent Knowland to the United States senate and has been a friend of Knowland's for some years.

Indian Avenue Plan, Zoning Act Before Council

City council in session tomorrow evening will consider the proposal to widen Indian Avenue and discuss the new land use ordinance if prepared in time by City Attorney Roy Colegate and Tyler Suess, special planning consultant employed by the city.

City Engineer William Minturn may not have completed the entire plan for the widening of Indian avenue by the time council convenes but is expected to have a partial drawing at hand for submission.

Colegate and Suess are in hopes that the land use ordinance will be ready for presentation but a doubt exists if that will be possible by tomorrow evening.

The PUBLISHER'S Corner by OLIVER B. JAYNES

HERE'S HELPFUL HINTS to make the Village more pleasurable for summer residents: Imaginary umbrellas for Phat's imaginary benches. . . . The Water Company might run Tom Collins through the mains every afternoon between five and six. A Good Humor man tinkling pretty tunes around the Village these drowsy afternoons and balmy evenings. . . . Erect a tent over Palm Canyon drive and install gigantic coolers at one end. . . . Or we might cover the main drag with imitation snow and have all the natives come to work on skis. . . . Showers could be rigged up at regular intervals along the sidewalks (a big improvement over benches) and residents could wear bathing suits and carry towels. . . . Keep the official thermometer out of commission for the summer. . . . and last but not least arrange several imitation snow men along the highways approaching the Village.

ROTARIANS ARE BACK to a luncheon club stripped of all its trimmings: Eat and go on back to work! A visitor with a tie is looked upon as a curiosity. The only subject brought up at last week's session was whether or not to have a cold lunch this week. Nobody seemed to care much what they had so the matter was left up to Pete Peterson, who arranges the speakerless meetings.

SOMEONE ASKED ME the other day if it wasn't inconvenient having The Desert Sun advertising and news departments located three blocks apart. He didn't know news and advertising men! Being at each other's throats most of the time, the idea isn't a bad one. Were it not for the extra rental, I would consider such an arrangement as a permanent one. Then, too, going back and forth for every member of the staff, and it may happen at that. If Mister Kenneth Colburn doesn't get that Desert Sun-Kelley Furniture building up pretty soon you're going to see furniture stores and newspaper offices all over the place. You'll see overstuffed furniture on display at the Desert Camera Shop and may find Oliver B. Jaynes firmly entrenched in the offices of Dr. James B. Oliver!

New Night Loop to Start Next Monday With Same Teams; Boys' Club Winner In First League; Baseball Plans Set

The Boys Club are sure of a trophy and they have a chance at another one.

Officers of the Palm Springs Night Ball league, meeting Friday at Bill Marvin's sporting goods store, voted to terminate the present league as originally scheduled and then voted to start a new loop—with the same teams—starting next Monday night, June 23.

In this new loop, a double round will be played, each team tangling with the other teams twice.

THE PROGRAM will provide softball games each Monday and Wednesday night during the remainder of June and all through July and August.

The Boys Club finished its schedule last week with four straight victories in the original loop. No other team has a clean record and therefore the boys are in as champions of the first round. They'll get a trophy for that.

THEY'LL MEET each of the other teams twice again and if they get by, they'll have another trophy. Then there's a third prize coming up. At the end of the season, the three top teams will meet in an elimination prize for the grand title.

Bob Bennett, commissioner, Harold West, secretary-treasurer and Bill Marvin, business manager of the league, met with Charley LaRue, representing the Lions club, Sid Canales of the Mexican Colony team and Cleveland King of the Gay 20s Friday night to do the planning.

DESERT HOT SPRINGS, having a game that night, was also represented by LaRue. Frank Partridge, Boys Club head, was unable to be present but approved the program afterwards.

Bob Bennett was given an additional job. He was placed in charge of the diamond at the Field Club and will take charge of schedules on non-league nights to avoid conflicts. Schedule of games was arranged at the meeting.

LEAGUE GAMES take up three nights a week—the city loop on Mondays and Wednesdays, county league on Thursdays except when Banning plays here which will be on a Tuesday night.

The Boys Club junior team—the little kids—will have the All-Stars and Lions engage in a practice game and July 1 when Banning meets the All-Stars here.

Friday night is an open night for stray games which may be arranged.

According to the State Department of Industrial Relations there are 202,000 State employees in California.

League Leaders Clash Thursday at San Jacinto

Palm Springs All-Stars and San Jacinto, currently riding at the top of the county league with one victory each, clash this week and only one of them will remain with a clear record Friday morning. The game will be played at San Jacinto.

Palm Springs opened the season with a 2 to 1 victory over Hemet and drew a bye last week.

Banning, which had opened with a 11-7 victory over Indio, bowed to San Jacinto last week, 0 to 7. It was San Jacinto's first game in the league and gave them, with the local outfit, a record of one win, no losses.

The loop is at present on a five-club basis, Coachella having dropped out without playing a game.

In the other league game last week Hemet defeated Indio 5 to 2 at Indio.

The standing of the loop to date:

	P	W	Pct
Palm Springs.....	1	0	1000
San Jacinto.....	1	0	1000
Hemet.....	1	1	500
Banning.....	1	1	500

Local Shriners To Attend Big L. A. Ceremonial

Shriners of Palm Springs were making plans today to attend the Midsummer Ceremonial, which Al Malaikah Temple will stage Saturday evening, June 23, in Shrine auditorium, Los Angeles.

A large class of Knights Templar and 32nd degree Scottish Rite Masons will be initiated into the Ancient Arabic Order Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, and a large delegation is expected from each of the Shrine clubs from San Luis Obispo on the north, Orange county on the south and from the territory between the shores of the Pacific and the Arizona border.

The ceremonial will be preceded by an Oriental revue, and a pageant of the uniformed organizations of Al Malaikah Temple, Ceremonial Director Joseph Wade Brigrance stated.

Famous Opera Star in Village, One of Last To Gain Audience With Avak

Star of the motion picture "The Great Waltz" and prima donna of the opera, Miliza Korjus was a visitor in the Village last week with her three-year-old son Ernie.

The famed coloratura soprano's main reason for coming to Palm Springs was to see Avak which she did with a group of eighty Villagers last Friday. She later told newsmen that the young faith healer had helped her immensely in curing her right leg weakened as a result of an automobile accident two years ago. As for the presence of her tiny son the singing star said: "I took him along on my visit with Avak for his future good."

She also expressed great faith in the healing power of the former goldsmith of Iran.

"I am preparing to make full length picture of Traviata," the opera star said, but she refused to name the studio where the picture would be filmed.

PROPOSED HOSPITAL—Nobles with Al Malaikah Temple's jurisdiction, which includes Palm Springs, this week received instructions on how to raise their share of the $1,500,000 for the hospital to be erected in the heart of Los Angeles, dedicated to crippled youngsters regardless of race, color or creed. Stanton A. Bruner is general campaign chairman.

Local Shriners To Aid in Drive for Crippled Children's Hospital

Palm Springs Shriners, members of Al Malaikah Temple, today were urged to aid in an intensive campaign to raise $1,500,000 for the Los Angeles unit of the Shriners hospital for Crippled Children, in a directive from Stanton A. Bruner, general chairman. Bruner's appeal to local Nobles declared that it was the ambition of Potentate Elmer P. Bromley to lay the cornerstone to the hospital during the year of his potentate, which expires in January, 1948.

Plans were discussed at the Shrine ceremonial here April 26 for the hospital and one of the floats in the parade was a model of the proposed institution.

THE SITE, in the heart of Los Angeles, has already been purchased, where crippled children, regardless of race, color or creed will be received, the only requirement being that they are under 14 years of age and that their parents are unable to afford the necessary medical treatment and hospitalization.

This will be the 16th of similar Shriners hospitals, the first of which was built at Shreveport, Louisiana in 1922. All contributors will have their names inscribed in the Golden Book, which will have a prominent place in the hospital. All Shriners who secure subscriptions of $1,000 or over will have their names on a bronze plaque in Shrine auditorium, and all contributors of $1,000 or over will have their names on a similar plaque in Shrine auditorium.

A WAITING LIST of approximately 2000 crippled children who need the treatment that this hospital will offer, is already compiled. Motion pictures will be available to show what has been accomplished, and an extensive speakers bureau has been organized under direction of Superior Judge Charles Newell Carns of Los Angeles county to carry the message far and wide throughout Al Malaikah's territory.

Chairman Bruner pointed out that not one cent of contributions would be used for promotional expense, a special fund having been established by Al Malaikah temple to defray all campaign expenditures.

Gaynor Bound Over To Face Trial on Charge of Bunco

Gussitor Gaynor, 55-year-old Negro, was bound over to Superior court for trial following his preliminary hearing in Judge Eugene E. Theriault's court Friday on a charge of grand larceny.

Gaynor is said to have fled Palm Springs after allegedly bilking Mrs. Gladys Hurt out of her life savings of $1100 in a bunco scheme. Apprehended in Oakland, he was returned here and reportedly identified by Mrs. Hurt as the man who promised she would share in the wealth contained in a pocketbook he found, if she would give him $1000 as a sign of good faith.

Scandal Bruited in the Old Corral

Lucy Mothers What Looks Like a Horse;
But Owner Jim Maynard Isn't Worrying

There are scandalous whispers going the rounds of the Village and it concerns none other than Lucy—Lucy, who has a host of followers among Villagers and winter tourists.

If the one thousand to one chance exists that some one in Palm Springs doesn't know who Lucy is—well, Jim Maynard, police officer will be only too glad to affect a personal introduction. She has a high sheen to her outward appearance, and two dark circles enclose both her eyes and the world she travels in, considers her something of a beauty—and thereby hangs this tale.

LUCY, if it must be known now and here, is a burro and during the winter months she makes up part of the famous Burro Train—that is, when she isn't foaling.

The fact that Lucy has given birth to eight little burros over a period of the required number of years, never caused any one to raise their eyebrows, not even Jim Maynard who knows all about such animals or his partner in the burro business, Henry B. Tuttle. But it was another story when the two took a gander into the corral the other day. As a matter of fact they took a double gander at the thing that filled their vision.

CAUSE RIGHT THERE and as proud as she could be was Lucy and standing right beside her was a spindly legged colt, "the fairest little creature either one of us ever saw foaled by a Jenny," and it wasn't a baby jackass either," according to the proud stock ranchers.

"Why," said Maynard, "it is a horse. Not a burro and that's what gets me," he added scratching his head in perplexity. Listening to Maynard's story, most of the personnel at the police station have visited the corral at the south end of Palm Canyon drive to see the baby quadruped for themselves and all have come back shaking their heads declaring that "It's impossible but its the cutest little thing you ever saw."

FINALLY MAYNARD came up with this explanation: "You know," he began, "there are a lot of wild horses roaming Palm Canyon drive and I am of the opinion Lucy answered the 'call of the wild' one night and dashed off into the moonlight with one of those wild horses. Or, on the other hand her boy friend, came down from the hills and wooed our Jenny. Lucy's colt has the clear cut features of a horse with none of the markings of a burro. Even its tail is similar in every respect to that of a horse colt and not more than a week old is almost as tall as his mother Lucy. "Time will tell," declared Maynard. "I'm sure my contention that Lucy has foaled a colt will come true."

Berman Happy

Baby Daughter Is
Addition to Family

Eddie Berman, co-owner of The Lido was passing out belated cigars to Village friends Saturday.

The occasion marked the birth of six-pound, five-ounce Ellen Sue, born to his wife in the Cedars of Lebanon, May 21 at noon. Saturday was the first opportunity the proud father had to tell friends in the Village of the happy event.

Berman reported that the mother and child are doing well but that he hasn't gotten over the enjoyable shock yet of being a father for the first time. His hand was still trembling a little as he passed the cigars around.

Kilroy

He Not Only WAS Here—He IS Here

Dr. O. B. McRory is a veterinarian, and as such, always has a hospital full of ailing pets. His wife, Florence, loves animals. So do Jimmy and Billy. As a result, Palm Springs is on the verge of having its own oo. For Doc, Florence, Jimmy and Billy do not comprise the sum total of the McRory menage—they're less than half of it.

OUTSIDE of the pets in the hospital, the family has a considerable outlay of animals of its own, separate and distinct from the paying guests.

A census would enumerate three turtles, two dogs, a cat, a duck—there was for a time a goose but it doesn't live there any more—and the latest addition, a ring-tailed Siberian monkey. At various times other sundry and odd pets were boosting Dr. McRory's food bill and delighting the youngsters.

A STORK, TOO, must have flapped his wings there about a year ago but no one saw it, just the evidence of his visit. Carlisle, the turtle, is 100 years old, his wife is 70. The result of their marriage is approximately a year old now.

But to get back to that ring-tailed monkey—last week Florence McRory had a birthday. Her husband, knowing her flare for odd pets, got her an appropriate gift—that monkey. It was promptly christened Kilroy, and has already taken a liking to Palm Springs.

In other words—Kilroy not only WAS here—he IS here.

Torney Acquisition Plan Still Live One

Officials of the city and the more than 800 persons who favored purchase of the surplus-declared Torney General Hospital and lost in a special election authorizing the city to purchase the property by the slim margin of four votes, are still "in there pitching" for at least a portion of the lands and buildings.

This was the announcement yesterday of Raymond Haight who went to Washington and revived the almost forgotten application of the city for the purchase of the property under its priority rights.

ENDLESS MEETINGS are being held between John Phillips, Congressman, Senators William Knowland, and Sheridan Downey and representatives of the War Assets Administration and the Public Buildings Administration to work out some compromise agreement wherein Palm Springs would be enabled to acquire a portion of the lands and buildings at handsome discounts.

The Board of Reviews, which passes on bids for major real property sales, was scheduled to meet last Friday, according to Haight, to examine bids recently submitted for parcel one of the Torney General Hospital property which includes the old El Mirador Hotel. At the same time this board had been expected to announce the price for which all or part of Torney General would be sold to the city under its priority. This meeting, originally scheduled to take place before the special election May 20, was first delayed until after the election and subsequently, several times again.

SITTING by the telephone for four days expecting to hear some word from Washington, Haight said that at a late hour Monday, the action of the Board of Reviews, if it met on Friday, had not been reported.

Haight told the Desert Sun that the law firm of Hogan & Hartson, who have been acting for the city in Washington, have been watching the picture closely and will call him by telephone the moment some concrete action takes place.

To Tell It All

Schultz and Leeds
Plan Book on Village

NOW it's going to be told. Harry Schultz and Charles Leeds, who recently got out of the newspaper business in Palm Springs, are going to write a book.

It will be about Palm Springs and they say there'll be no punches pulled. They're going to name names and place places and include a slice of the history of the Village, too.

Before holding up Palm Springs to the scrutiny of the world, they are going to take a tour of South America.

Bailey Family at Rancho Santa Fe

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bailey of Smoke Tree ranch, and family, have leased the beautiful Kingman Douglas home and 20-acre ranch at Rancho Santa Fe for the summer months.

At Rancho Santa Fe they are neighbors of the Earl Gibbs, well known former Villagers.

The Baileys will be back in Palm Springs by the time school rolls around again.

The American Veterans' Committee

BY
ETHEL GILLET WHITEHORN

This week, keep your eye on the AVC convention. At long last, thousands of veteran members—ever loyal to American traditions and institutions, will come to grips with the subversive elements that have infiltrated their ranks. They intend to do a house-cleaning job that will make history. No reason exists why they should not succeed.

Before proceeding, it is important to point out that the American Veterans' Committee must not be confused with the American Veterans of World War II—the AMVETS. Since the AMVETS was organized, not one ism—foreign to Americanism—has dared to attempt an infiltration into their rank and file. Through-out America, AMVETS is strongly organized, and the veterans who guide its destiny are as thoroughly American as those in Palm Springs, whom we are proud to recognize as our leading younger citizens.

IT IS UNFORTUNATE that AVC didn't get off to a good start. The path has been rugged, and criticism of its membership has received wide publicity.

However, it looks now as though misfortune is about to become good fortune. The test is to be made this week, and all American citizens should voice the prayer that the veterans in AVC who believe wholeheartedly in the country they fought for so gallantly, will be successful in placing their house in order.

The subversionists in AVC claim that America is archaic; that America is outmoded; that our government by consent of the governed is not as efficient as government under communism, or socialism, or some other alien ism.

THE LOYAL VETERANS in AVC maintain that whenever the manhood of America has marched, the motive and purpose of America always has been to extend freedom—to extend the truth of government, which sets men free, to know that liberty which we wrote into our Constitution in the Bill of Rights.

So keep your eye on the AVC convention this week. Watch Americanism battle Communism. And remember, while watching the other nations of the world have had anywhere from a thousand to more than 5000 years in which to achieve everything we have achieved in America in 170 years. They did not succeed. We did. We shall continue to succeed, so long as we are determined to prevent our nation from being thrown into the stewing kettle of the Eastern Hemisphere.

Mrs. Graettinger Undergoes Surgery

Mrs. R. F. Graettinger, wife of the editor of The Desert Sun, was recuperating this week at Cedars of Lebanon hospital, Los Angeles, following major surgery a week ago.

She expects to leave the hospital at the end of this week and return to the Village the next week.

spiritual power and preaching ability and pastoral sympathy have made the type of ministry which was necessary to fit into the work of a church in a desert town.

Mrs. Macartney has been an able assistant minister, wise in judgment and broad in experience, who has established herself in the affections of a loyal people.

I am sure Dr. Macartney should be one of the happiest men in the world. To have been given ten glorious years and more of service in the Palm Springs church as the culmination of a ministry of over half a century during which he was absent from his pulpit only on rare occasions because of ill health—that is a life service to make one really happy and grateful.

ON BEHALF of the church and a host of friends I wish to testify to the honor and affection in which Dr. and Mrs. Macartney are held, and to extend to them best wishes for their continued health and happiness and usefulness and express the hope that this next ten years will be better than the past.

Signed—Bertram B. Weatherall.

Connie and Ruby Plan Long Jaunt

Connie and Ruby of The Dunes plan to leave Palm Springs some time after the closing of that night spot, June 28, and travel to Detroit. Ruby expects to spend two weeks in that city while his wife Connie plans to go on to New York City for a week in search of new musical material for next season.

Later the two plan to visit Walter Melrose on his ranch in Montana before returning to Palm Springs in time to open The Dunes August 29 and get ready for the ensuing season.

New England's six state legislatures boast a total of 112 women members, or more than half of the national aggregate of 206.

THE PHYSICAL equipment and financial resources of the church have been greatly enhanced during his pastorate—today there is set aside a very substantial sum for the erection of an educational building in the near future.

But entirely apart from these tangible evidences of Dr. Macartney's forward looking leadership, he has greatly enlarged the sphere of the church's educational, civic, social and spiritual influence.

Especially noteworthy is the fact that he built up a Sunday evening service from nothing to church full of interested people.

HIS SOCIAL qualities, sense of humor, Midas touch, his high powered advertising ability, his

Delay Appointment Of Supervisor for Fourth District

Indications are that a successor to Robert Dillon, who recently resigned as supervisor from the fourth Riverside county district because of illness, may not be made until after July 1.

Chairman Walter V. Pittman, at last week's board session, said that other supervisors would have to take on some of the work belonging to the fourth district.

"I HAD A TALK with State Assemblyman Philip L. Boyd the other day and he told me that there will be no appointment made by the governor for a fourth district supervisor for at least three weeks."

Dillon, a resident of Beaumont, resigned earlier this month because of ill health. His district, which includes Palm Springs and adjacent territory, is the largest in the county.

PETITIONS are in circulation for two candidates seeking the appointment. One asks that William Kinstner, Coachella Valley banker and agriculturist, be named and the other seeks the appointment of Judge Wallace P. Rouse of Indio.

Harry C. Harper, manager of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce, who allowed his name to be announced as a candidate, withdrew last week in favor of Kinstner.

SHORT STORY

Young Blade

By
GLORIA FERSCHT

DANNY DALE, his teeth still chattering from the wet chill of the night, twisted his head on the soft warm pillow in an effort to speak. "Mom, I'm sorry, honest I am. I couldn't help it."

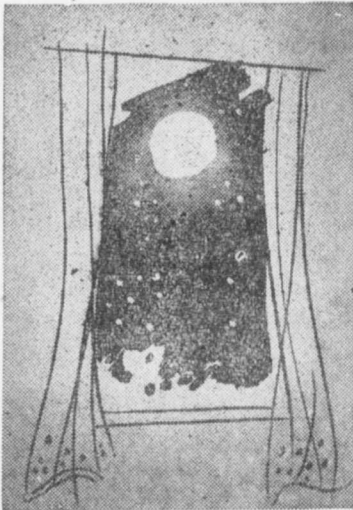

The tall blonde boy pulled the warm covers more closely around him. Two dimples, which he had not outgrown during his 15 years, were even now visible in his cheeks among several scratches and a deep gash slightly below his right eye.

It was not unusual for Danny to wander off by himself, especially when he was angry or disturbed. He often spent the entire day swimming or boating in the lake, but he was never gone overnight. At one hour past midnight, Mr. Hale and a small searching party had found Danny lying on the beach, cold and wet.

Dr. Scott spoke softly to Danny as he applied an anesthetic to the boy's bruised face. "Are you warm, Danny?"

There was a curt reply. "Sure." The experienced country doctor could see at once that Danny was straining himself to keep the tears back. "What's the matter, son? You can trust old Doc Scott, and surely you have no secrets from your parents. Where have you been? What have you been doing?"

Danny pulled himself up and leaned against the bedstead. His natural color was slowly coming to his cheeks, but his eyes showed fright. He slowly parted his lips to speak. "I loved her so much."

The doctor showed no sign of surprise; he remained silent. It was Danny who did all the talking now. "Mom and dad tried to keep it a secret from me. They wanted to take me to the city. They knew I loved her, just as I loved the country too." Danny's voice had a tone of grief. "Dad said I couldn't see her again. Jeanne has always been so good to me; I couldn't live without her. We always have picnics together, and she can swim as fast as I can. I loved to go bicycle riding with her too. Going to the city is bad enough but losing Jeanne is the worst."

Doctor Scott began to see clearly the whole situation. This 15-year-old youth knew what he wanted. Jeanne had been his constant companion. Mr. and Mrs. Hale had very suddenly decided to move to the city in order to open up a small business. They knew, however, it was out of the question to have Jeanne with them. The small apartment which they had rented was no larger than a cubbyhole.

DR. SCOTT motioned for Mr. and Mrs. Hale to leave the room, and, after opening the window for some fresh air, he followed. Danny was falling asleep, but the old physician knew that it was a troubled sleep, a restless one, which might haunt the boy for many months.

"Doctor Scott," Mrs. Hale began, "my husband and I were wrong. I see it all now." She spoke slowly, a faint smile came upon her lips. "Danny's instincts are healthy, sound. He loves the woods, the lakes, the open fields." There was a short pause and then she added mournfully, "And he really loves Jeanne. I did not think a 15-year-old boy could possibly have so much love for anyone."

There was a sudden hush in the room and then a movement of feet. Mr. Hale, who had been silent all this time, now jumped up. "Doctor, in Danny's room, that noise."

"Quick, I left the window open. He is climbing out," the doctor replied. Mrs. Hale was the first to open the door.

She saw the long curtains fluttering in the open window, which framed a full moon and myriad stars.

One glance in the bed explained the noise and the black footprints which covered the neatly polished floor. Closely snuggled to Danny lay Jeanne, dripping wet and covered with mud. The dog had loved her young master enough to swim back across the lake and find the way home. Danny's eyes were filled with tears, big tears, full of love and joy.

Do Village Snakes Climb Trees?

Do snakes climb trees? Sand-colored snakes with brown spots on them, that is? Now, just a minute. This question is levelled at all sober, industrious-minded Villagers. Those unable to qualify in the foregoing category, need not answer that one.

The question which heads this piece was originally posed by Mrs. Mathew Hennes, city hall employee.

Don't Waste It

No Use Spending
5c on L. A. Mail

Don't put an airmail stamp on a letter destined for a Los Angeles addressee. It will get there just as quick with an ordinary 3-cent stamp on it.

Western Air Lines which carried the airmail between here and Los Angeles, has discontinued service until November.

Until they resume service, there'll be no airmail for Los Angeles points. Postmaster R. M. Gorham added that airmail for points beyond Los Angeles should be in the post office not later than 4:15 p. m. so that it can be dispatched to that city by train and leave there via air that same evening.

The word heathen once referred to country folk.

LOOKING OUT of a window her attention was arrested by a strange object in a Palo Verde tree.

"That's a funny-looking bird," she thought and looked again.

The second look convinced her. It wasn't a bird at all. While she looked, it slithered down the tree and disappeared beneath a nearby stone fence.

BELIEVE IT OR NOT, it was a snake. A sand-colored reptile with brownish spots—so the report came in. It was about two and one-half feet long.

Mrs. Hennes, in describing the length of the snake, disqualifies herself from ever becoming an expert fisherman—maybe that should be fisherwoman.

For she refrained from stretching her arms out to the limit the way some of the Village boys do when they come back from fishing trips.

CONSULTATION with sundry Villagers who claim to know about snakes failed to solve the question of how did the thing get into that Palo Verde tree, up high, too.

Nobody knew but a small boy volunteered the guess that maybe an owl picked up the snake, then, deciding it wasn't hungry, dropped it into the tree.

Any queries concerning the way of an owl with a snake will be respectfully disregarded.

Petitions Attack County Measure

Referendum petitions seeking repeal of a section of Riverside county's recently-adapted Ordinance No. 329 which creates the office of county administrator, were in circulation here, in Cathedral City, Desert Hot Springs and other sections of the county. The petitions also seek to abolish the office of county council.

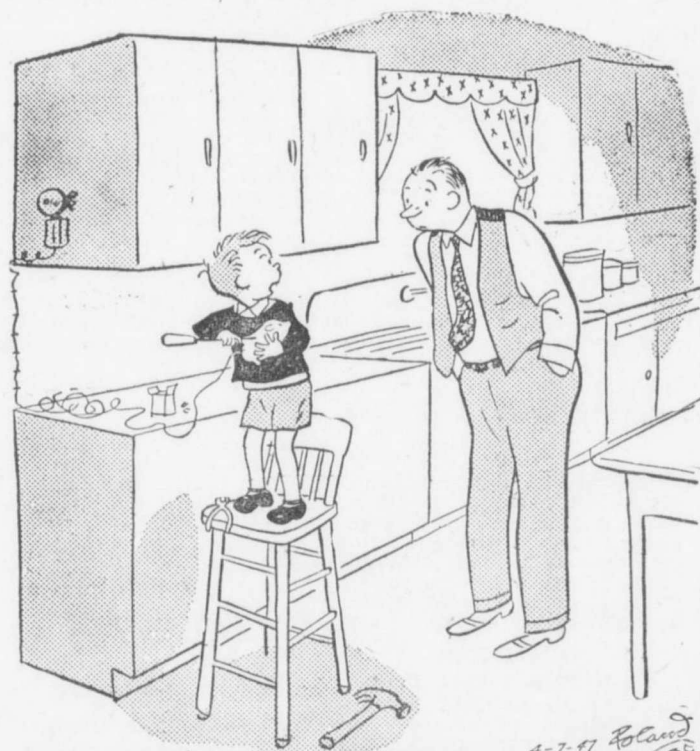

William Hornaday of Riverside is sponsoring the petitions and seeks 5000 signatures before the weekend. He claims that abolishment of the two offices would save the taxpayers $50,000 annually.

Among the throngs visiting the San Bernardino mountain area for a change from desert weather recently were Dr. and Mrs. James B. Oliver of Palm Springs. They spent a few days at the Arrowhead Lodge.

Sheptenko Office Reports Business Continues Brisk

Peter B. Sheptenko of the Pioneer Realty company of Palm Springs, reports one of the busiest weeks for June that he has had in any week at this time of the year in twelve years.

Tom B. Green, one of his brokers, purchased a home in the Desert Tract, which he is having furnished by his son, who manufactures in Southern California. The furniture is in Southern California.

TWO OTHER DEALS consummated by Mr. Green were the sale of two duplexes in the Santa Rosa Tract purchased by J. Millstone of Long Beach from Louis Hamburger.

Terry Ray also came through with a deal by selling the attractive home of Henry W. Kerr on San Jacinto Way, near the Bob Hope residence, to C. W. Baker of Altadena, who plans on coming to Palm Springs early in September. Terry will be dividing his time during the summer between Palm Springs and Hollywood, selling Palm Springs while keeping cool in Hollywood.

Not to be outdone by his men, Pete Sheptenko sold a charming home in the Winterhaven Tract to Mrs. Ferol Morgan, who plans on making many improvements on the home before occupying it next fall.

ANOTHER SALE handled by Sheptenko this week was the sale of a brand new home in the Desert Tract near the high school to Wood Glover who will be the new physical director and coach at the high school next year. Mr. Glover will be remembered when he occupied this same position here just before the war.

The prize of the week was the sale of a beautiful hillside home in Little Tuscany to Howard Hawks, motion picture producer, who starts a new Technicolor picture for Sam Goldwyn this week. As Sheptenko has done for the past ten years, he is keeping his modern air-conditioned office open all summer, and will be on the job himself, with the assistance of Tom Green and his secretary.

Doing the Village

with Moya Henderson

At home to their many friends are Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Moore who were married Sunday, June 8, in Las Vegas. Mrs. Moore, the former Nellie Goodale, toured the East for a month before meeting Boyd in the Nevada city for the wedding ceremony.

After a honeymoon trip through that state they returned to the Village on Thursday.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Moore are well known in Palm Springs having been associated with the telephone company for many years.

Bob, who is the son of Mrs. Marie Belyea of Palm Springs and Idyllwild, was an outstanding student in the local schools and went on to Cal Tech, then completed his college education at U.S.C. while in the Navy.

The young couple plan to make their home in the Village this fall when Mr. Belyea will be associated with his mother in the real estate business.

After a wedding ceremony in Las Vegas on July 20, the couple will take a honeymoon trip to Yellowstone National Park before returning to make their home in Palm Springs.

Anne's smiling face will be missed at Hatchett's where she has been the bookkeeper for many years.

TO CELEBRATE the birthday of Alan Thompson friends gathered for cocktails at the home of his mother-in-law, Dottie Stein, on Saturday evening. Among the guests was Alan's mother, Tommie Thompson of Laguna Beach. Barbara Hinkle invited guests to dinner Saturday night at the Hinkle's new Rancho Royale home to honor Barney on his birthday.

Walter Z. Allens Back from 10,000 Mile Motor Jaunt

Walter Z. and Margaret Allen, well known former Villagers are back after a two-month automobile trip covering 10,000 miles in 33 states. They are at their home in Banning where they moved when leaving Palm Springs last year.

Mr. Allen was in the real estate business here and is a former city councilman. Mrs. Allen held a high position at the local telephone office for some time.

THEY HEADED east via the southern route but cut north at New Orleans to visit Mrs. Allen's aunt, Mrs. Bertha McLean, in Indiana. They headed west through historic and scenic country to Yellowstone where they showed a bit of perseverance and saw that national park. Blocked by snow at the eastern entrance, they went into the Jackson Hole country and came at the park from the south, only to find more snow. They finally made it through the west entry at West Yellowstone.

Despite all of the scenery. This part of the nation still looks best, they said.

over to the support of Kirstner. However, it is known that Phil Boyd and possibly Senator Dilworth are not very well acquainted with Kerstner and in order to remedy this Kerstner may be invited to make a trip to the state's capitol where he will meet both lawmakers and possibly the Governor.

AT THE SAME TIME it is reported that Rouse has had a personal representative in Sacramento working hard for his appointment.

During the last week there has been heavy pressure exerted by friends of Harper urging him to change his mind and allow his name to be presented to the governor as a possible candidate for the position. They have pointed out to him his promise of more than six months, that he would stand for the appointment in the event no candidate suitable to the governor and the people of the Fourth district was found. To these pleas Harper has turned a polite but deaf ear.

The chamber of commerce secretary, well known from one end of Riverside county to the other, has urged his friends to "wait and see." Harper is known to have no political aspirations and if he were appointed to the supervisors board he would lose considerably in annual earnings. At the time his name was being circulated on petitions in Coachella Valley it was known that Harper was exploring the possibility of opening some sort of business here in Palm Springs to supplement his earnings as a county supervisor.

AS THE DESERT SUN goes to press, long distance telephone calls from the state capitol and another mid-state city, were received asking if Harper would accept the Governor's appointment in the event that Kirstner did not "fill" the bill in Governor's estimation. This message relayed

Desert Hot Springs News

With every chef in Desert Hot Springs co-operating, residents of that resort rallied Saturday night in a community dinner which had two objectives.

The first was observance of Flag Day—the second to raise funds for completion of the new fire house dedicated that afternoon.

B. E. Daizell, president of the Improvement association, said the event at the Idle Hour cafe was highly successful from all standpoints.

ALMOST HALF of lot owners affected in tracts No. 1 and 2, have either contributed or have pledged their money, to aid in the paving plan in that area.

As a result, paved streets are hoped to be ready there in the fall, Kate Maze, secretary of the paving committee of the Desert Hot Springs chamber of commerce, said last week end.

JUST A BABY SITTER is what Mrs. Viola Dismore of the Blue Haven cafe calls herself now—but is she proud. For the baby is Nancy, her grand-daughter, born to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Donahue in Hollywood hospital recently.

Mrs. Dismore is now spending her time at the Donahue's Westwood home with her daughter, Heraline, and the new baby.

The peace-loving peoples of the world and those who hate war are not interested in knowing by what means the military experts will effect disarmament. What they want to know is what formula the statesmen will use to make disarmament stick.—Dr. Jose Arce, Argentine U.N. delegate.

Because of the use of tar on roads adjoining their vineyards, wine growers of the Rhone valley complained that their wines tasted of the tar.

A temperature of minus 66 degrees at Yellowstone National Park, Wyo., in 1933, was one of the lowest ever recorded in the United States.

Hawaii's annual pack of pineapples totals 10,000,000 cases.

to Harper received the reply that: "Kirstner should be given a fair chance for the appointment first."

Nevertheless there loomed the possibility, strongly indicated, that Harper, much against his will, would be one of the names placed on the Governor's desk, as a possible nominee.

Connell to Become Post Commander At Big Ceremonies

John Connell, prominent Villager, will be installed commander of Owen B. Coffman post, American Legion, tomorrow night at 8 o'clock in ceremonies on the Mashie court at the Desert Inn, Commander G. K. Sanborn, whom he succeeds, reminded members of the post today.

Joseph S. Long of Riverside, former state commander of the Legion will conduct the services.

OTHER OFFICIALS to be installed tomorrow night are Jay Morrison, first vice-commander; Wilbur Davis, second vice-commander; Fred Strombon, chaplain; Tom Kieley, John Holditch and Harold Lienau, members of the executive board.

The new commander has been a resident of Palm Springs for the past 11 years. He was a member of the city council and has been active in Village affairs throughout his residence here.

HE SERVED in the United States Navy in World War II, enlisting in 1944.

All will be present for the ceremony except Davis who is at present in Honolulu on a vacation trip.

Mrs. Paul Belding and Mrs. Oliver B. Jaynes of Palm Springs last week attended graduation exercises at Anoaia School for Girls near Arcadia where Janet Jaynes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jaynes is a student.

MORE ABOUT . . .

Files Appeal . . .

hors, or all of Palm Springs for that matter.

The $200 fine wasn't really the cause behind Sarthou's orders to his attorney to appeal the case. He said that he just doesn't like cramped quarters such as he will be "invited" to inhabit for five days at the Riverside county jail. The style-conscious Sarthou, always impeccably dressed and with buttonaire ever present in the heavy sports jacket lapel, hates like the very dickens to exchange this garb for the plain dungarees he will be forced to wear as a resident for five days in the county klink, he indicated.

ALTHOUGH during his jury trial Sarthou was accused of singing at 4:30 a. m., such airs as "Open the Door Richard," the tune he is now warbling is declared to be "Don't Fence Me In," which may, if his appeal to the Superior Court is denied, change to that one which starts "If I had the Wings of an Angel."

As for the million dollars he plans to make here next season, he is reported to have told the D. A., that he is going to add considerably to the more than $300,000 in business property he now owns on Palm Canyon drive, and this, Sarthou is reported to have said, will make him the million he intends will clearly show his business acumen to the native sons and daughters of Palm Springs.

Sarthou personally sought out a reporter of the Desert Sun to announce that he was concentrating on a treatise which will in fact, theory or fancy, outline the ten commandments which newcomers to this Village should observe.

THE BRIEFS as filed by Mr. Dougherty in Riverside will be accompanied by similar documents prepared by Gustafson. The defense attorney's brief will be in the form of a bill of exceptions to the conduct of the trial, presentation of testimony of prosecuting witnesses and of the Judge's instruction to the jury. At the same time he will give the reviewing Superior Court Judge an outline of the entire trial as he saw it.

The prosecution will file its version of the trial and then both sides will seek the signature of the judge to their briefs. The magistrate may throw one or both of the documents out and write one of his own for submission.

THE SUPERIOR COURT Judge to whom the case will be assigned will study these briefs and then decide either to grant Sarthou a new trial by jury in the Superior Court or uphold the sentence as imposed by Judge Theriau. In the latter event the defendant will then be committed to the county jail to serve the five days imposed by the Judge here or a total of thirty days if the $200 fine is not paid.

Sarthou has declared that he will appeal the verdict if upheld by the Superior Court, but in this action, it was pointed out that any appeal to still a higher court would not be permitted.

MEANWHILE, there are two other trials Sarthou has yet to face. One is another charge of disturbing the peace and the second one that of driving an automobile while under the influence of intoxicating liquors.

At the time the motion for a new trial and arrest of judgment was being argued in Judge Theriau's court, Dougherty pleaded for a change of venue on the grounds that a sufficient number of prospective jurors would be prejudiced could not be obtained in Palm Springs at this time of the year.

Judge Theriau granted this plea concurring with the defense that to fill jury panels for the two succeeding trials would be almost impossible, and transferred both cases to Justice of the Peace George Wing's court in Banning. The disturbing of the peace charge will be prosecuted by the district attorney's office and open dates on that court's calendar have been submitted to defense attorney Dougherty, for selection.

THE DWI charge will be prosecuted by Roy Colegate, city attorney, in the Banning court just as soon as a date can be set and according to Colegate will take place sometime during the next two weeks. The doctor who gave Sarthou his sobriety test, all of the witnesses in the case, will all be present in Banning on trial day and the case will be heard by a jury composed entirely of Banning residents.

This is much to the liking of Sarthou, who has openly declared that he did not receive a fair trial here at the hands of the jurors who heard the evidence in his first trial and the judge to render the verdict.
